Susan got this regarding a Music subscription. I Went into iTunes to see about a trial purchase - guess what ? Never ordered. Apple support provided a list of ways to cancel such a subscription or verify / manage on all devices.

You can see the address that was used to send this scam. Found in Junk mail. But if you reply they will ask to use your creds to cancel.

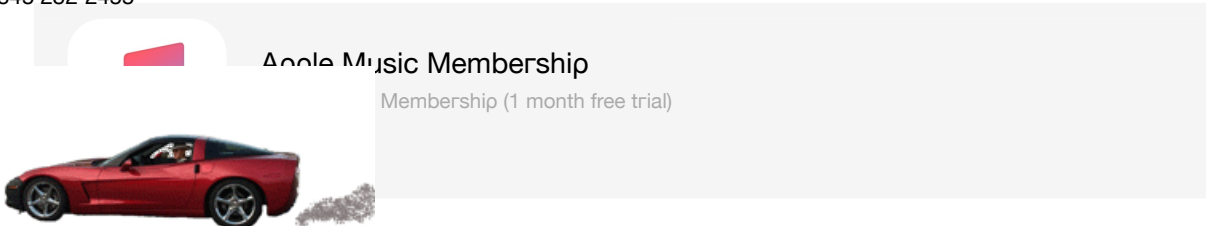

Thought you would like to know. I think we would like to go to Charleston on your proposed road trip to the Apple Store. Susan has plantars fast in left foot and just twisted angle on right and is wearing a boot. Going to find out about MRI tomorrow. These complications might have an effect on what we will be doing over the next month or so. Keep I touch
